WILSON TO BASE NOTE ON PRINCIPLES OF LAW

WILL SEEK TO ASCERTAIN RULES GERMANY INTENDS TO FOLLOW

Document Will Not Enter Into Technical Discussion of Details Raised In German Communication —Unfavorable Answer May Lead to A Severance of Diplomatic Relations—Von Bernstorff May Suggest Separation of Traffic.

WASHINGTON, June 1.—President Wilson determined today the United States must ascertain definitely and very promptly from Germany whether the imperial government intends in the future to be guided by the accepted principles of international law and the rights of neutrals or to follow its own rules of maritime warfare.

The president listened to a varied expression of opinion at a meeting of his cabinet, taking little part in the discussion himself. Later he began the preparation of a note to be dispatched before the end of this week embodying his own ideas and what seemed to him the concensus of his official family.

Reply Is Unsatisfactory.

The verdict of a majority of the cabinet was that the German reply to the American note following the sinking of the Lusitania was unresponsive and unsatisfactory, disregarded the good will of the United States, deubted its facts and disclaimed all blame for the destruction of merchantmen with American lives. The question of facts raised by Germany were regarded as irrelevant at this time.

The trend of opinion was that the United States must inquire and obtain an early answer as to whether Germany intends to recognize the hitherto accepted principle that neutrals may travel anywhere on the high seas on unarmed merchant ships, whether or not such vessels carry contraband, and that merchantmen which do not resist capture must be visited and searched and the passengers and crew transferred to a place of safety before the vessel is destroyed.

An unfavorable answer to this inquiry would lead, it was predicted in official quarters, to a severance of diplomatic relations on the ground that the United States could not continue intercourse with a government which repudiated these principles. Steps then would be taken to inform Americans of the dangers to which they were exposed as a result of this action and such measures as necessary adopted to safeguard the lives and interests of citizens of the United States. Should Germany accept the principle in a way that would constitute a guarantee for the future, then the American government would reiterate its demand for a "strict accountability" for violations of this provision and killing Americans without warning.

Cabinet Decides Point.

The decision to base the American note on the principles of international law to obtain an affirmative or negative reply and not enter into a technical discussion of details raised in the German communication which avoided the main issues, was the single development of the cabinet council. Some of the cabinet members favored even excluding any reference to the facts asked for by Germany, settling first the point as to whether Germany intended to disregard the American warning of last February that it would insist on the exercise of right of visit and search with respect to vessels on which Americans were traveling.

One cabinet officer believed the American government should enter into an investigation of the points raised by the German answer, submitting its proof and giving the German government an opportunity to do likewise. Others, however, declared that such a process would only mean delay and in the event of a deadlock on facts, would leave the United States, which had already assured itself of the authenticity of its information and whose good faith was at stake, without remedy for the present and in the future, attacks on American vessels having been committed, notwithstanding assurances to the contrary. The opinion was general that the United States would restate during the course of its reply that the Lusitania was unarmed and would ignore such questions as to whether the carriage of ammunition is a violation of American law.

Ambassador to Call on Wilson.

Tomorrow Count Von Bernstorff, the German ambassador, will call on President Wilson. The ambassador requested the interview. It will be his first visit since he returned from Germany after the European war began.

He declined to say tonight what instructions from his government he proposed to discuss, but revealed that his action was taken without instruction from his government.

In well informed quarters the belief was expressed that while the ambassador's visit might not affect the forthcoming note, what the president might say informally to the ambassador would be transmitted to the German government and be taken into consideration when the American note is received in Berlin. It was thought likely that Mr. Wilson would seek to impress upon the ambassador the earnest intention and unvarying determination of the United States to obtain an accountability for past violations of its rights by the German navy and a guarantee against their repetition.

Might Suggest Separation of Traffic.

In some diplomatic quarters close to the German embassy, it was said tonight that the ambassador would seek to elicit from President Wilson his views on how Germany could conduct her submarine warfare without interfering with neutrals and might suggest the separation of passenger and contraband traffic or the giving of assurances that the British government would not arm its merchantmen carrying passengers. None of these reported proposals, officials conversant with the position of the government indicated, would be considered until a definite acquiescence by Germany in the fundamental principles of international law was obtained. Today's cabinet meeting indicated that the government did not intend to yield any of the rights which neutrals hitherto have possessed and that it would stand firmly on the position as outlined in previous notes. The cabinet divided two and a half hours in discussion of the European and Mexican situation. The president saw callers earlier in the day. He showed calmness and no signs of strain. As the cabinet assembled in the executive offices, individual members, by their attitude, reflected the gravity of the situation.

Make no Announcements.

No announcements were made after the meeting adjourned. Cabinet officers indicated, however, that the president was weighing the subjects before him with care and deliberation and that while he was desirous of acting promptly he would not despatch the second note to Germany until every phase of the case as well as the government's future policy had been fully discussed. Expressions of confidence in the president came in telegrams from all parts of the country during the day. Members of the cabinet spoke of this and declared that the president's view of the entire problem was such that he could be depended upon in his action to maintain the honor and dignity of the country. Officials reiterated today that the United Sates has absolute proof that the Lusiania was unarmed—that details of an investigation made by customs inspectors at New York before the Lusitania sailed, the assurances of the British government that no merchantman would be permitted to sail armed from the United States and a report by Collector Malone on all the articles in the Lusitania's cargo including ammunition were before the Washington government when the note of May 13th was written by the president.

Ie became known tonight that when the note was first drafted it pointed out that lives of American citizens could not be lawfully placed in jeopardy on merchantmen "which did not resist capture" but on mature deliberation and an investigation of all the facts the words "unarmed merchantman" were inserted covering all cases in strict conformity with recognized principles of international law in the past. One of the suggestions made in official quarters today was that Germany could easily have learned the status of British merchantmen leaving American ports by inquiry at the state department and that if prior to the sailing of the Lusitania information tending to prove that the Lusitania would carry guns on its voyage were in the possession of German submarine commanders this should have been submitted to the American government so that measures could have been taken to convince the German government on this point and assure the safety of Americans on board the vessel.

Obtained Assurances From England.

Early in the war it was explained at the state department instructions were sent to collectors of the various ports of the United States dealing with the questions of armament. While the carrying of a six inch gun for defensive purposes on a merchantman to repel attack is recognized right under international law, the United States nevertheless obtained from Great Britain assurances that her vessels would not be armed and American collectors were consequently instructed to allow no British ship to clear if guns were mounted or concealed.

In one case at New Orleans recently, guns were found and clearance refused until taken from the ship. All outbound vessels have been examined by American officials for guns, mounted or stored in the holds.

TEUTONS TAKE FORTS NORTH OF PREMYSL

STATE CAMPAIGN FAVORS THEM EVERYWHERE IN EASTERN ZONE

Austro-Germans Show Little Disposition of Accepting a Purely Defensive Role—French Recount Success at Ablain-St. Nazaire.

LONDON, June 1.—(10:48 p. m.)—In the face of yesterday's Russian claims that the Austro-German grip on Przemysl had been broken and that the offensive in the great Galician struggle had passed to the Russians came both German and Austrian official statements tonight asserting that the Austro-German troops have been successful to the north and the southeast of the fortress, that the forts girdling it to the north have fallen into their hands, while to the southeast they have wrested Stry from the Russians.

In fact the Austro-Germans say that the campaign is running in their favor everywhere in the eastern zone from Libau in the north to the southernmost tip of the Galician battle line.

It is apparent that the Russians, since being forced back to the San have been rushing heavy reinforcements in the hope of averting the fall of Przemysl. But the Austro-Germans, undeterred by studendous losses, have as yet shown little disposition to accept a purely defensive role and the British critics seem to have been a bit premature in saying that the German thrust had definitely failed.

No British official communication was issued today. The French confine themselves, generally speaking, to recounting their success at Ablain-St. Nazaire.

The German official statement ignores this and tells of minor gains elsewhere. It adds that the French effort to break through the German lines has failed.

EXULTATION IS GENERAL IN ROME OVER AIR RAID ON POLA

ROME, via Paris, June 1.—(4:40 p. m.)—Exultation is general in Rome over the Italian air raid on Pola and the amount of damage done, as Pola is the greatest military port of Austria, is the center of the railways of Istria and having the natural defences and fortifications. The fact that an Italian airship was able to damage the arsenal, the railway station and other structures is taken as proof that the Austrian fleet, not at that port is not entirely safe. There is no disposition here, however, to exaggerate successes won so far by the Italian arms and the newspapers are cautioning the people against thinking that the Austrians will not make a most determined resistance behind the defences which they have prepared.

IDENTIFY BODY OF YOUNG WOMAN TAKEN FROM LAKE MICHIGAN

CHICAGO, June 1.—The body of a girl taken from Lake Michigan today was identified tonight as Grace Bond Coney, a worker of the Northwestern University settlement, who disappeared May 1. She was the daughter of E. A. Coney, manager of the New York offices of the Postal Telegraph company. Miss Coney, who was 23 years old, disappeared after writing a sister in New York that she was despondent because a young settlement worker she had met here did not reciprocate her love.

The body was identified by three of her former co-workers. A crescent-shaped gold pin and the clothing was recognized as that worn by Miss Coney when she disappeared.

WILSON EXPRESSES APPRECIATION.

Loveland, Colo., June 1.—In reply to a message of confidence and support telegraphed President Wilson Friday, the general assembly of the United Presbyterian church of North America today received an expression of appreciation from the president, who expressed himself as "greatly heartened" by the generous thought in the greetings sent him. The next meeting of the assembly will be held in Cleveland, O., during the week beginning May 24, 1916.

EDITORS FIGHT DUEL.

Madrid, via Paris, June 1.—(5 p. m)—Feeling between the anti-Germans and pro-Germans in Spain runs high. Two editors, Senor Blanco, whose tendencies are favorable to the allies and Senor Borras, who is pro-German, fought a duel today with sabres. Both men were wounded.

War News Summarized

German and Austrian official statements are in agreement on the continued progress of the Teutonic allies in the eastern war zone. Notwithstanding the recent optimistic reports from Petrograd that the fighting along the river San, Galicia in the neighborhood of Przemysl was developing in favor of the Russians, it would seem that the Austro-German investment of Przemysl is drawing closer. Both Vienna and Berlin say that three of the forts of the girdle on the north front of the fortress have been carried by storm and that 1,400 prisoners and 28 guns were taken at these points.

South of the Dniester the town of Stry has been captured and more than nine thousand prisoners together with eight cannons and fifteen machine guns. An official German report says the Russians have evacuated the important town of Radom, in Poland, to the south of Warsaw.

Fierce fighting continues in Galicia and at some points along the western line, while engagements between Austrians and Italians are becoming more spirited an indication that the Italian troops are coming within striking distance of the prepared Austrian defenses in the mountains.

Paris admits the recapture by Germans of portions of trenches on the outskirts of the Lepretre forest but at other points on the western line claims progress for the allies notably to the north of Arras at Souchez where heavy losses were inflicted on the Germans and in the "labynth" near Nieuville-St. Vaast where the German works, the French assert, are falling into their hands.

An artillery duel between the Austrians and Italians is in progress on the plateau of Folgaria and Lavaronne and minor fighting is taking place on the Carinthian frontier.

DUNNE ABDRESSES WESTERN ECONOMIC SOCIETY CODFERENCE

Tells of Advantages Which Proposed Eight-Foot Waterway From Lockport to Utica Will Afford.

Chicago, June 1.—Governor Dunne of Illinois, in addressing the Western Economic society's waterway conference tonight, said:

"The proposed eight-foot waterway from Lockport, Ill., to Utica, Ill., will afford a continued waterway eight feet in depth from Lake Michigan to Cairo and thence by the Mississippi river to New Orleans and the gulf of Mexico. A navigable commercial waterway between the great lakes and the Mississippi has been the prophecy and recommendation of every great statesman in Illinois from the days of Pere Marquette in 1763, when he crossed the portage between the Desplaines and Chicago rivers. That prophecy and recommendation seems to be realized so far as legislative action is concerned by the law just passed. I believe a tremendous commerce will be developed over this waterway as soon as it is opened to the public, with New Orleans 1,000 miles nearer the Panama canal than are the ports of Boston, Philadelphia and New York."

Professor William A. Shelton of the University of Georgia took the position that the proposed waterway between Lockport and Utica could be nothing but a wasteful failure.

Even the Mississippi river system, with its constantly increasing depth, he said, was a commercial failure and the waterway between Lockport and Utica would be much less efficient than the Mississippi river below St. Louis where a minimum width of several hundred feet is maintained even at low water.

Since the new waterway would be less efficient than the Mississippi, freight rates, he said, could not be forced downward. The construction of the waterway meant that a prairie state with the greatest railway net in the union was to dig a mid-continent barrier to traffic across its own territory and the route of trans-continental commerce.

BARS WORKS OF ITALIANS.

Amsterdam, via London, June 2, 2:44 a. m.—A dispatch received here from Berlin says that Emperor William has ruled that no works of living Italian composers may be performed in German theaters during the war.

REFUSE TO TAKE UP M'GLOON BILL

House Gives Fifty Car Limit Measure What Is Considered Its Death Wound

PASS APPROPRIATIONS

Cook County Politics Responsible for Failure of Voting Machine Commission to Submit Report

INTRODUCES OMNIBUS BILL

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., June 1—Organized labor's most important measure before this session of the legislature was given what is considered its death wound today, when the house refused to suspend its rules for the immediate consideration of the McGloon fifty car limit bill.

The bill would limit freight trains to fifty cars and was backed by organized labor as a "safety first" measure.

Labor leaders declared tonight that another effort will be made to have the bill acted upon.

Introduces Omnibus Bill.

Representative Smejkal, chairman of the house appropriations committee, today introduced the omnibus appropriation bill which carries $15,309,887.69 as compared with $11,992,960.39 two years ago.

Both houses spent most of the day in passing and advancing appropriation measures. By tomorrow night the senate hopes to have passed or defeated every bill on its calendar which originated in that house.

Senator Dailey won a fight in the senate in behalf of the pleasure fishermen when he secured the adoption of an amendment to the fish and game bill permitting fishing with hook and line at all times with no limit upon the size of the fish that may be caught in this manner. The senator made an appeal for the adoption of the amendment on the ground that most of the fish hooked in this manner would die if thrown back into the water.

Senator Glackin today introduced a bill providing that two percent of all inheritance tax collections in the state shall be paid into the county treasury. The bill is a result of the recent supreme court decision which held that county treasurers are not entitled to two percent of inheritance collections.

House Passes Relief Bill.

The house passed a bill introduced by Senator Smith appropriating $727.68 for the relief of Catherine Culver for money spent by her husband in the repairing of the national Lincoln monument at Springfield.

Spurred to action by recent disclosures in Chicago of the death of many women who had bene criminally operated upon, the lower house of the legislature today passed the Thomas Curran bill, providing for the regulation by the state board of administration of maternity hospitals or hospitals having maternity wards.

Cook county politics was responsible for the failure of the Butts voting machine commission to submit a report of its investigations to the legislature today.

Former Governor Deneen and other Republican members of the commission came to Springfield today with the intention of submitting a report and winding up the affairs of the commission.

Some of the Republican members of the commission did not get here and the Democratic members were able by their votes to postpone the submission of the report which is said to contain an indirect slap at John E. Owens, who is a candidate for judge of the Cook county circuit court and who is up for election next Monday.

Advance Boxing Bill.

A new lease of life was given to the boxing bill when the measure was amended and advanced to third reading in the state senate. The amendment offered by Senator Carroll of Chicago, provides that the measure shall not become effective in any municipality until adopted by a majority vote in a referendum election.

A private banking bill, providing for state regulation of all private banking institutions in cities of over 25,000 population, will be reported to the senate tomorrow with the recommendation that it pass. Favorable action upon the measure was taken tonight by the senate committee on banks and banking.

In a bill reported out tonight by the house committee on elections prepared jointly by members of the house and senate, codifying the general election laws of the state there is eliminated the September primary now contained in the present law and all primaries, presidential, state, county, legislative are fixed for the first Tuesday in April, 1916, and every two years thereafter.

The committee appointed by the senate to investigate Governor Dunne's recess appointments held a meeting tonight and heard complaint against the confirmation of George W. Dowell of Duquoin as a member of the state court of claims.

Among other bills passed by the senate today was one appropriating $40,000 for the erection of an armory at Jacksonville on condition that the citizens of that city donate a site.

CONFEDERATES PLEDGE SUPPORT TO PRESIDENT

VETERANS OPEN THEIR TWENTY-FIFTH RE-UNION AT RICHMOND

Cheer Hope Expressed by Their Leaders That Peace in America May Not be Disturbed by the War in Europe and Reiterate Their Loyalty to the Union.

RICHMOND, Va., June1—Thousands of Confederate Veterans at the opening of their twenty-fifth reunion here today cheered the hope expressed by their leaders that peace in America may not be disturbed by the war in Europe. They reiterated their loyalty to the union, shouted pledges of support to the president in any crisis and bow assent to prayers that those who guide the republic's destinies might be blessed with wisdom to deal with pending international affairs.

The climax of the ceremonies came when Dr. Henry W. Battle closed an address with the words: "Our President—God bless, protect and guide him—has his hand on the helm of the ship of state, directing her course through the storm tossed waves of a world at war."

Frequent references to the European war were made at the convention of the United Sons of Confederate Veterans who cheered a pledge of support to the president in upholding the nation's honor, voiced by Clarence J. Owens of Washington. Tributes were expressed to Jefferson Davis, Robert E. Lee, Stonewall Jackson and other Confederate leaders, among them Generals J. E. B. Stuart, whose widow appeared on the platform and received an ovation. The eulogy of Jefferson Davis was delivered by General B. W. Greene who asserted that the "life of the president of the confederacy, one of patriotism, nobility and sincerity, challenges the world's admiration."

FRANK WALSH MEETS CHARGES OF KING IN A COUNTER-STATEMENT

Says Charges Would Seem to Simmer Down to a Question of Whether Mr. King was Boasting or Confessing.

Kansas City, June 1—Charges that Frank P. Walsh, chairman of the United States commission on industrial relations, had distorted testimony in a statement issued here yesterday which were made by W. L. Mackenzie King, director of an investigation into industrial relations for the Rockefeller foundation, in a statement today, were met tonight by a counter statement from Mr. Walsh in which he asserted that "Mr. King's charges of distortion would seem to simmer down to a question as to whether Mr. King in his testimony was boasting or confessing."

"In my statement of yesterday I did say that Mr. King, an employe of the Rockefeller foundation, boasted on the witness stand in Washington that the will and conscience of John D. Rockefeller, Jr., was more potent in Colorado than all the public opinion of all the people of the United States."

Mr. Walsh said in his state ment tonight:

"I believe that any school boy will quickly see that my statement is borne out by what Mr. King declares to have been his declaration made in answer to the question he quotes as having been taken from the official records of the commission."

GRANT MUNDAY CHANGE OF VENUE; WILL PROBABLY GO TO ROCKFORD

CHICAGO, June 1—Charles B. Munday, indicted vice-president of the LaSalle street Trust & Savings Bank, was granted a change of venue today despite the efforts of the states attorney to keep the case in Cook county. Counsel will meet tomorrow and decide where the case shall be sent. It probably will go to Rockford.

It was argued that the change would cost the county between $40,000 and $50,000 in transportation, hotel bills and incidentals.

BEGIN NEW INVESTIGATION.

Ottawa, Ill., June 1.—A new investigation into the death of Adele Scheidecker, who was killed May 1 near Sandwich, Ill., by the accidental discharge of a revolver while in the company of Herbert Lett, her fiance, was begun here today by the local authorities. An autopsy on the girl's body will be held tomorrow.

POPE RATIFIES APPOINTMENT.

Rome, June, via Paris, 6 p. m.—On the recommendation of the consistoral congregation, Pope Benedict today ratified the appointment of the Right Rev. Edward J. Hanna, at present administrator of the dioces of San Francisco, as bishop of San Francisco.

The pope also ratified the appointment of the Very Rev. Joseph S. Glass as bishop of Salt Lake.

ADOPT NEW POLICY TOWARD MEXICO

Cabinet Approves Statement to Be Sent to Mexican Leaders Today

COURSE NOT OUTLINED

Purpose Is to Move Moral Support to A Coalition of the Best Elements In Mexico

MIGHT REQUIRE INTERVENTION

WASHINGTON, June 1—President Wilson and his cabinet today adopted a new policy to be pursued by the United States toward Mexico. It has for its object restoration of order and the relief of millions of non-combatants from the devastations of Mexico's military elements which have brought about conditions regarded as intolerable. The president read to the cabinet a statement which is to be communicated tomorrow to the leaders of all Mexican factions, serving notice that unless they, themselves compose the situation, some other means will be found by the United States to bring about the establishment of a stable government in the republic. The statement was approved after prolonged discussion. It will be made public tomorrow.

Course is Not Outlined.

The specific course the United States will pursue in the event the contending factions fail to agree is not outlined in the president's statement but the administration's present purpose is to move moral support to a coalition of the best elements in Mexico and accord the government thereby created formal recognition.

With such recognition would come an embargo on arms permitting the constituted government to receive munitions of war to the exclusion of all other elements and factions.

That the government's policy if unsuccessful in this course might require intervention ultimately has been considered and the intention to insist on a settlement has not been swayed by the possible necessity of such action. In high executive quarters, however, confidence prevails that the American government's attitude will clear up misapprehensions as to its intentions that have resisted in Mexico and bring about the desired coalition government.

West's Return Deciding Factor.

The administration's policy is the culmination of several weeks of conferences between the president and his official family. The return of Du Val West, who spent three months personall investigating conditions in Mexico for the president, was the deciding factor. He brought back reports showing that the food situation was serious, that the country crops had failed and industries were exhausted, that the soil had not been tilled for lack of cattle which had been slaughtered or exported for revenue and that a terrible condition of affairs for the large masses of innocent non-combatants was ahead unless remedial measures were undertaken

The American Red Cross already has laid plans for the relief work to be carried out in co-operation with state department. The Carranza agency here has issued several statements denying shortage of food and saying the stories of famine are exaggerated, but the Washington government is not taking these into consideration because its reports through diplomatic and consular sources and the personal investigation of Mr. West just completed. In this connection Eliziro Arrendondo, head of the Carranza agency, made public tonight the following telegram from General Carranza dated Vera Cruz:

"The last military successes have made clear the triumph of our cause and therefore I have allowed the free importation of all kinds of food supplies into the city of Mexico."

Repeatedly Receive Assurances.

The Washington government has repeatedly received assurances from General Carranza that food would be permitted to be shipped to Mexico City to relieve famine conditions. Official reports, however, told a few days ago of the seizure by Carranza troops of a large shipment of corn started for the capital. A statement by Mr. Arrendondo tonight reiterated denial of this charge.

Talk of an embargo on arms was revived in official quarters today. Miss Mabel Boardman of the American Red Cross forwarded some suggestions to the white house during the day that an embargo be declared, but later a statement was issued at the Red Cross headquarters, saying this suggestion was not made by the society itself.

Reports from many sections of the southern republic were made public tonight by the Red Cross telling of looting and suffering.

The census bureau has just assued a bulletin showing that the wealth of the nation in 1912 was $187,739,000,000. In 1904, the estimated wealth was $107,104,000,000. This is an enormous increase in eight years but it is not so great as will be experienced in the succeeding eight years. Though the business depression of the last two years brought stagnation in some localities, yet this is only a temporary shrinkage and will be more than offset by the growth in values which will certainly follow restoration of the Republican party to power.

Hunt a Trained Fire Fighter.

Samuel Hunt, who nas been appointed by Commissioner Martin as chief of the fire department, has served the greater part of the time for twenty years in the department. He began service as a hoseman during the administration of Charles Widmayer in 1895. He subsequently served in the department under the following: Mayor Holley, Mayor Tyrrell, Mayor Fairbank, Mayor J. R. Davis, Mayor Widmayer, Mayor Bancroft and Mayor George W. Davis. For a number of years he filled the position of assistant chief and he has been continuously in the fire service during the period mentioned except for the months that he was in the Spanish-American war and a year spent in Canada. He has the deserved reputation of being a fearless and competent fire fighter and under his direction there is every reason to believe that an efficient fire department can and will be maintained.

To Spot Time Loss.

"It will not be very long," said Mayor Henry J. Rodgers yesterday, "until the present city council establishes a store-room at the city building which will be in charge of some regular employe. The purpose will be to keep on hand a ocmplete stock of ordinary supplies for the light and water departments as well as for the city building. This can be done without any very large investment in supplies and will effect a great saving both in the cost of materials and in time. As it is now when any little thing is needed for the light and water departments, and such needs occur every day, a man must be sent with a requisition in an endeavor to locate the material wanted.

"We are finding that it often takes a man an hour or more to find at just what establishment he can get material for some repair work. If this was an infrequent happening it would make little difference, but in maintaining plants as extensive as are now operated by the light and water departments repair work must be in progress every day. This means that there is daily a great loss of time and so the store room plan is being considered to cut out this loss of time and also to effect a further saving by buying supplies in bulk instead of a trifle at a time. In this particular we are seeking to apply the same business principle to the affairs of the city that the managers of a private business enterprise would use. It is our hope also to employ the same principles in other business affairs of the city."

To Aid Farm Adviser Movement.

In the state senate Tuesday the bill providing that the state shall expend $1200 a year for the employment of a farm adviser in each county where a certain sum is raised locally for the work was passed. Already there is a federal law which makes it possible to secure national aid for this work and if the proposed state law becomes effective the time will not be far distant when the farmers of Morgan county can afford an adviser. As a matter of fact they can well afford one now and the question is just how long they can "afford" to be without one.

In the Illinois counties where the farm adviser movement has been given a trial the results have been excellent and crop conditions have materially improved. The work of the farm adviser is by no means limited to crop improvement but includes the betterment of general farm conditions and the fostering of a co-operative spirit in farm work. This very fact of developing a spirit which results in a pulling together is possibly the most important work of the adviser. There are a great many problems confronting the farmer today which cannot be solved except by the community movement. The proposed Illinois law is well advised and will mean a forward step agriculturally in various counties of the state.

Exercise and Health.

In "Exercise and Health," an educational leaflet from the United States Public Health Service, a note of warning is sounded. The death rate after the age of 40 is increasing in spite of more sanitary modes of living and greater protection against communicable diseases. The expectation of life after 40 is less than it was thirty years ago. This is due largely to increased prevalence of the diseases of degeneration. The musicles, arteries and other organs of those who as a result of sedentary occupation or indolence take too little exercise degenerate. Heart disease, kidney disease and other ills follow.

Then the leaflet goes on to say: Take exercise. Take daily exercise. Have a hobby that gets you out of doors. Walk to your business, to your dressmaker's; walk for the sake of walking. Join a walking club and keep your weekly score of miles. Keep chickens, make a garden, wheel the baby or play golf or any other game, but take two hours outdoor exercise every day. Gymnasium work is good for those who like it and can afford it, but avoid heavy athletics. Don't try to be a "strong man"—the champion athlete often dies young. Be a moderate, persistent, daily exponent of exercise. You may notburn the family carriage, as Benjamin Franklin suggested, but at least, as he advised, walk, walk, walk.

The Mexican Situation.

The president's emphasis on the word "humanity" in the German note led some people to declare that this was the first time the word had ever been brought to the front in diplomatic exchanges. A Spanish war veteran writes to the St. Louis Globe-Democrat to show the contrary, by calling to mind an expression employed by McKinley just prior to the war in 1896. McKinley declared that "in the name of humanity and civilization," the atrocities in Cuba must come to an end. This veteran points out that "a parallel case exists in Mexico, but those in authority in Washington have overlooked many things along with the watchful waiting policy. Indications at Washington now are however, that the president has determined to end the "watching" and "waiting" and "in the name of humanity and civilization" will proceed to take such steps in Mexico as will result in better conditions there and a more stable government. If this cannot be done by supporting certain factions after persuading them to unite, then it is said the president is ready to go ahead with an intervention progrom, notwithstanding the grave attendant circumstances.

The people will approve the general plan and the intervention finality if that come for the majority have long since arrived at the conclusion that the president's policy in this particular instance had shown too much of "restraint." It will be a long task, if intervention comes but one from which there must be no shirking.

A COMMUNICATION.

Editor Jourfnal:

I read in a recent issue of the Courier that the Journal had something in its system that should be gotten out, and gotten out at once. There are others who have something in their systems also which should be gotten out, and gotten out at once. I am a taxpayer in your city, and interested in the schools, and if I got out of my system all that is in it, old Jacksonville would have something to startle it out of the trap in which it has been caught.

All through the board of education's recent proceedings, the fact is mentioned that these radical changes were made for the sake of economy, and that it was for the good of the schools. I am only voicing the sentiments of many others, who are watching these things from a distance, when I say, cultured Jacksonville has taken a long step backward in educational progress when she resorts to this proposed one man system. Cultured Jacksonville the city of schools and colleges, has become so economical that she has taken her place beside small cities like Winchester, Chapin, Woodson and many others, and gone back to the one man system for her schools. How does this look going abroad as an example to other cities who are watching our progress and following in our footsteps? Think of it.

I feel that there has befallen to our school system, the greatest of calamities, in the transfer of Miss Laura White from the seventh and eighth grades to the Washington school. In the removal of Miss Olmsted, our health nurse, and the dropping of Mr. Stone from the high school principalship. Is it economy to retard the health of our children? Is it economy to transfer Miss White from the grades in which she has specialized for years and strengthened the morals of our children? The adolescent period in the lives of the children is most critical and Miss White has developed a standard for the boys and girls at this age that will be everlasting in their lives. Mr. Stone is a real gentleman, an educator of ability. He should have a fair chance to show what he can do in our high school.

In business, efficiency is economy. If this proposed change will promote efficiency, it is the poorest plan for economy that anyone can conceive. There are many other ways in which to economize if need be. The night work might be cut out and the light bills would pay a fair salary in themselves. It is all bosh this economical streak. The people's wishes were never consulted. This is very evident. These were too important questions to be decided by three if three is the legal number of the board. The mayor seemingly acted hastily in deciding so great a question. If the people are to be served, why were they not consulted in these matters. They never would have gone through. if the people of our fair city had been consulted.

Some one of these days, Jacksonville will be aroused from her sleep and find that she has been plunged into deeper politics than she has ever known in her schools. We are wondering why a stranger should come to our town and tell us where to get off and seek to dominate so many affairs.

A Taxpayer.

PUPILS OF LITTLE YORK SCHOOL ENJOY PICNIC

Picnic Dinner Enjoyed by Company of Eighty—Various Athletic Contests Held and Program Given Under the Management of Miss Elsie H. Moxon.

Miss Elsie H. Moxon, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Isaac N. Moxon of West College avenue and who graduated from the Jacksonville high school, with the class of 1913 has just completed a very successful year's work as teacher of the Little York school. Recently a picnic dinner was enjoyed by the students and friends, eighty in all. Following the splendid dinner, a program of merit was given and this was followed by a program of athletic events. Miss Viola Thompson and Lorayne Bateman, each received a box of chocolates for perfect attendance and punctuality during the school year. Lynn Thompson won the prize in the declamation contest and Paul Bateman in the spelling cotest. The prize for guessing the number of grains of candy corn in a pint jar went to Floyd Grinder. In the athletic events the men's race was won by Andrew Johnson; boy's race, aged 8 to 14, Leonard Brown; boys under eight, Thomas Stanberry; girls 8 to 14 years of age, Elsie Challans; girls under eight, Eunice Teele. In the ladies tug of war Katherine Johnson's side won from Alma Turley's side; in the men's tug of war, James Kinney's side won from Daniel Gorman's side. In the boys tug of war Leonard Brown's side won from Earl Teele's side. The high jump ended in a tie between Andrew and Everett Johnson. Miss Moxon awarded all with prizes. She will teach there next year.

Funeral services for James T. McPhail were held Sunday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock at the family residence in Mt. Sterling and interment was made in Timewell cemetery. Rev. Mr. Taylor, pastor of the Timewell Christian church, was in charge. E. E. McPhail, a nephew of the deceased, was present from Jacksonville to attend the funeral.

Mr. McPhail died at his home in Mt. Sterling Friday afternoon at 4 o'clock. He was born June 20, 1845 and was all his life a resident of Brown county. At the age of 19 he enlisted in the army and served as a soldier until the close of the civil war.

Surviving Mr. McPhail are four daughters, Miss Lana McPhail of this city; Mrs. F. N. Worthington of Trenton, Mo.; Mrs. William Lucas, west of Mt. Sterling, and Mrs. Clarence Campbell, Mt. Sterling. Two sons, John and Enos McPhail, reside on a farm west of Mt. Sterling.

Mr. McPhail was married Feb. 3, 1869 to Miss Mary Rabb. Until a few years ago he resided on a farm west of Mt. Sterling. He was a member of the Presbyterian church and was numbered among Brown county's most respected citizens.

Corbin.

The funeral services of the late Mrs. Susan Corbin were held from Mt. Emery Baptist church Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. Services were in charge of the Rev. F. L. Scruggs. There was a large number of floral offerings and these were in charge of Mrs. Laura Lafayette, Mrs. James Blue and Mrs. John King.

Interment was in Jacksonville cemetery and the bearers were: Eugene, George, Sylvester, Arthur and William Corbin of this city, and Clarence Wood of Springfield.

FAREWELL FOR MR. AND MRS. STONE BY BIBLE CLASS

Members and Wives Meet for Pleasant Evening at Home of Mr. and Mrs. Homer L. Potter.

Members of the Opportunity Bible class of Grace M. E. church gave a farewell party last evening for Mr. and Mrs. C. A. R. Stone at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Homer L. Potter, 112 Park street. Mr. and Mrs. Stone expect to leave the city today. Class members and their wives were present, forming a company of forty-five, and the evening was spent in pleasant social manner. Mrs. J. I. Graham and Mrs. E. A. Hearn assisted the hostess.

Music was a feature of the entertainment and the unison songs toward the evening's close were enjoyed by all. Mr. Stone favored the company with two solos, "You Get Heaps O' Lickins" and "Dutch Idyll". Julian Hall sang "Because" and Mr. and Mrs. Hall gave as a duet, "The Rosary." Miss Sue Fox read "Who's Afraid" and Mrs. William Barbre responded with two readings, "At the Circus" and "A Little Boy's Excuse." Appropriate refreshments were served at a convenient hour by the hostesses.

This farewell event calls to mind once more the deepening sense of loss with which the going of Mr. and Mrs. Stone is regarded by the men and women of Jacksonville. Friends in large number will join the class in good wishes and Mr. and Mrs. Stone will be followed by the regrets of many sincere well-wishers.

WILL MAKE WEATHER IN CHICAGO

Chicago began making weather for the Central states Tuesday. Heretofore all weather has been made and sent from Washington. Under the new arrangement Chicago gets weather from all sections of the country.

Practically all of the storm weather comes from the northwest. All of the hot weather comes from the west and southwest. By having Chicago as the center of weather making we will get weather much quicker than formally. This will be a great advantage as to storm weather as many times the wires might be down from Washington and we would be unable to get reports. It will be of great value in giving storm bulletins to lake steamers.

AT ZION CHURCH.

A very interesting Decoration day service was held at Zion church, south of Murrayville, Sunday afternoon. A large audience was in attendance and the exercises began with a piano solo by Miss Hilda Osborne. Afterward the audience joined in singing America, and then a prayer was offered by Mrs. Josephine Spencer. With Miss Bessie Rea at the piano the choir sang, "Flag of Our Country" and then an eloquent address was made by Rev. Mr. McCollom of Murrayville. This was followed by two readings given by Miss Alma Story and Miss Alma Mutch. Following the church service the audience moved to the Gunn cemetery nearby, where the young people placed flowers on the graves of the ten old soldiers buried there.

Rent Houses Wanted

There has never been a time when desirable rent houses, $7.50 to $25, were scarcer at Johnston Agency than they are today. Our facilities for securing the right renter for the right house are good. Being the only agency in the city making a specialty of this business, a constant stream of applicants pours through our office. We know what is due to tenants in the way of repairs, and our tenants stay. On the other hand, we collect all rents in advance, and we do not, upon the average, lose a full month's rent upon one house a year.

Landlords—We think you will find it profitable, and save yourselves a great amount of trouble, if you will let us attend to your rentals. We have made a science of it. And we respectfully solicit your business.

CLYDE JONES MEETS WITH SERIOUS ACCIDENT IN ELEVATOR

Station Agent and Storekeeper at Little Indian Falls Thirty Feet When Cable of Man Lift Breaks—Unconscious Two Hours.

Clyde James, station agent, storekeeper and elevator manager at Little Indian, met with a serious accident Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock when a cable broke on the man lift in the elevator at that place, dropping down a distance of 30 feet. Mr. James was picked up unconscious shortly afterward and it was two hours before he regained consciousness. He received a concussion of the brain and other external injuries. Dr. Albert H. Dollear of Jacksonville was summoned and gave the necessary medical attention.

Mr. James had gone to the elevator on business and was on his way to the top of the building to look after some work. He took the man lift, which elevated about 40 feet. When some 30 feet from the bottom the cable broke. A patron of the elevator had brought grain there and he was the first to find the injured man lying on the elevator platform, face downward and one foot caught in the side of the chute. He was extricated and with the help of neighbors carried to his home. It was over two hours before he came to. He remembered very little of the accident, and although it is early to know the exact condition, he has a good fighting chance for his life.

MORTUARY

Loar.

The remains of Mrs. Dulcema Loar were brought to the city Tuesday from Peoria and taken immediately to Diamond Grove cemetery for burial. Brief services at the grave were held with the Rev M. L. Pontius in charge. The bearers were R. T. Cassell, Ralph B. Reynolds, Charles Hopper and S. T. Anderson.

WITH THE SICK.

Father Healy of Murrayville still remains in a critical condition. He has been ill for several days.

AT THE GRAND.

Little Caruso and his famous company of five people entertained large audiences at the Grand Tuesday afternoon and evening with their playing, singing and dancing. The stage settings are very attractive and the work of the troupe most commendable. "Alias Jimmy Valentine," a five reel Shubert and Brady feature, was shown and the entire program was one of merit.

GIVES FURTHER PROOF OF DEADLY CHARACTER OF GASES

London, June 1.—(8:16 p. m.)—Further proof of the deadly character of the asphyxiating gases used by the Germans was furnished in the British casualty lists issued tonight. In one regiment, the Dorsetshire, the deaths of four officers and 71 men are attributed to the gas poisoning.

AMERICAN INDEPENDENCE UNION ASKS CONTINUANCE OF NEUTRALITY

Executive Committee Sends Message to President Assuring Him of the "Unflinching Fidelity" of Union to Cause of Country.

New York, June 1—Dr. G. E. Berkemeier, chairman of the executive committee of the American Independence Union, of which Richard Bartholdt, former representative in congress from Missouri, is president and Herman Ridder, honorary president, signed a message sent tonight to president Wilson embodying a resolution passed by the committee which appeals for continuance of the nation's neutrality in the war.

"We feel" the message reads, "that the greatest danger which threatens us at the present time is the violation of that neutrality which you have so solemnly enjoined on our nation at the outbreak of the war. We beseech you to use every means consistent with the honor and dignity of our country to uphold the neutrality."

The message says that "only the one party has full opportunity of presenting its side" of the "great question now agitating our country" and that "there are twenty to twenty-five million loyal citizens of the United States who are in sympathy with Germany and Austria and profoundly convinced of their righteous cause."

The message assures the president of the "unhesitating loyalty" of those in whose behalf it is sent and of their "unflinching fidelity" to the cause of their country.

CHARGES THAT CHAIRMAN WALSH DISTORTED TESTIMONY

NEW YORK, June 1.—The charge that Chairman Frank P. Walsh of the United States industrial relations commission distorted testimony when he issued a statement at Kansas City yesterday seeking to make it appear that John D. Rockefeller, Jr., was personally responsible for labor conditions in the Colorado coal fields, was made here tonight by W. L. Mackenzie King, former minister of labor for Canada and now director of an investigation into industrial relations for the Rockefeller foundation. To support his contention Mr. King quoted from the official stenographic record of his testimony given in Washington recently.

MUST MEET CONDITIONS OF SOUTHERN COUNTRIES.

Philadelphia, June 1.—Business and bankers in the United States must not expect to develop trade with South and Central America unless they conform to the standards of those countries, make the right prices and are willing to extend terms of credit such as the southern republics have received from Europe in the past. This was the message delivered tonight in behalf of the delegates to the recent Pan-American financial conference by Senor Santiago Perez Triana of Colombia, at a banquet in honor of the delegates by business men and bankers of Philadelphia.

Spokane, Wash., June 1.—A lone robber entered the office of the Citizens' Savings & Loan Society at noon today, backed the bookkeeper, George F. Preston, into a rear room and escaped with $5000. The office of the society has been robbed twice within three months in the same manner.

NEW YORK ENTERTAINS CHINESE COMMISSION

New York, June 1.—Twenty of the leading business and professional men of China, appointed members of a commission by the president of their republic to visit the principle cities of the United States, were welcomed and entertained by city officials here today. A mayor's committee met them on their arrival from Philadelphia and escorted them to the city hall, where they were greeted by acting Mayor McAneny. Later they were guests at a luncheon given by the American Manufacturers' Export association.

ATTORNEY REFUSES WARRANT.

Milwaukee, Wis., June 1.—District Attorney W. C. Zabel today refused to issue a warrant applied for by Attorney Henry Cochems on behalf of General Samuel Pearson, charging officials of the Allis-Chalmers company with criminal conspiracy in connection with the alleged manufacture of war munitions for the allies.

FOREIGN CORRESPONDENCE.
(By Associated Press)

Amsterdam, May 29—(Correspondence of The Associated Press)—The German Emperor recently sketched a design for a monument which is to be erected in the former French town of St Quentin, to the memory of the dead in the present war. The story of what led to this is given in the German papers as follows:

"The Germans, on occupying St. Quentin, found a very fine monument to the French soldiers fallen in 1871, by the side of which a plain memorial tablet in honor of the German dead of the same year formed a rather undignified contrast. The military officials therefore decided to have another monument erected, this time to the dead of 1914-15, which, however, is to be common to both French and Germans. The local city councillors offered to bear half the cost and a Charlottenburg artist, Professor Wandschaelder, was charged with drawing the design. The artist sent in three designs and the Emporor came down from the Main headquarters specially to view them.

"He found them unsatisfactory. He wanted a richer design. He himself indicated the leading idea; an open temple-hall in Etruscan form, in the background—the memorial wall with the names of the dead and on either side, on the right and on the left a German and a French soldier standing as guards of honor. The obvious objection to this plan was that the figure of the German soldier, may later on, perhaps, be damaged by fanatical chauvinists bereft of the high and noble ideas of the Emperor, who, in a truly German spirit, was prepared to honor the brave foe, as much as the victor. Thereupon the Emperor decided: 'Let the warriors be equipped in an antique fashion'. In the course of the next few days the Emperor made two sketches expressing his idea and sent them to Professor Wandschaelder, with the express remark, however, that he need not, so far as details were concerned, feel himself in the least tied down to the model."

"Central Africa has now lost much of its former charm. The solitude of the impenetrable forests is desecrated by the telegraph messenger, who follows one even to the secret habitat of the leopard and the lair of the lion. It would not surprise me greatly if, while in the act of shooting an elephant, I should hear a voice from the clouds calling out 'Latest War News from the Front. Special Edition.'"

British Headquarters, France, May 29—Between Saturday and Tuesday, May 8 to 11, the British artillery fired a million and a half rounds of shells.

Liverpool, May 10.—Some interesting particulars as to how the captain of the German raider Kronprinz Eitel Friedrich, which is now interned in the United States, intercepted wireless messages and avoided the attention of the Britsh warships, is given by the captain of the British ship Invercoe, one of the Kronprinz Eitel's victims.

The British captain said: "They rigged up an eight foot kite, used the thinly drawn wire of Lord Thompson's sounding machine, made this fast to the kite and attached to it the wireless receiver. Every night they would send up the kite and catch every bit of wireless news that was going. Their own wireless could send only 900 miles, but by use of the kite arrangement they could hear up to 2,500 miles. The news that was picked up in this way was written out in German and put up on a bulletin board.

"These kites had to be flown against the wind, and on sending them up, the course of the ship had to be altered so as to bring the wind ahead. They lost sixteen kites during the time I was on board, due to the wind suddenly shifting, but they had material enough to make as many more as they wanted."

Paris, May 25.—(Correspondence of The Associated Press)—A reservist from the trenches telling how light is drawn from the Germans when a soldier wants to see what time it is at night and has no match.

"What time is it" asked a young recruit of the class of 1914 at his listening post in the advanced trenches. No one had a match and it was too dark to make out the time.

"If you want a light,' said a territorial who had passed the winter in the trenches, 'you have only to open a sharp fire on the trenches yonder.'

"The suggestion was acted on and after a few shots in quick succession a star seemed to open out in the sky overhead. Fearing a surprise attack the Germans had sent up a fuse to light the position.

"'Now you can see your watch,' said the territorial. 'but don't try the ruse too often.'"

Three dollars a pound was the price of tea which it was first introduced into England.

POST OFFICE CLERKS ADJOURN STATE SESSION

Among other important measures marking the closing session of the convention of the Illinois branch of the National Association of Postoffice Clerks was the election of officers and selecting the meeting place for next year. The day was filled with much business of interest to the members. Carl S. Richards, president of the local branch of the association, was elected delegate to the national convention. This convention will be held in Los Angeles, Cal., beginning Labor day. Elgin was selected as the meeting place for next year. Springfield asked for the convention, but the members favored Elgin.

Officers Elected.

The election of officers was held Tuesday morning. The following were elected:

President—Torey Johnson, Rockford.

Vice president—Arthur Mester, Peoria.

Secretary—W. C. Pflum, Elgin.

Treasurer—Phillip Graul, Alton.

Delegate to national convention—Carl S. Richards, Jacksonville.

Chairman organization committee—Henry M. Hay, Sterling.

Chairman grievance committee—Charles O. Blue, Urbana.

Chairman finance committee—W. E. Hornbeck, Springfield.

Change Time of Meeting.

There was much discussion over the question of changing the time of holding the convention. The convention has always been held beginning on Decoration day. It has been the opinion of many of the members of the organization that Decoration day is a day set aside for paying tribute and respect to our soldiers. That it should be a day held sacred and not for the transaction of business. After a thorough discussion of the matter it was decided that the third Friday and Saturday in July should be fixed permanently as the meeting time of the Illinois branch of the association.

At noon Tuesday the visitors were taken to the top of the Ayers National bank. This was much enjoyed, as it gave everybody a splendid birdseye view of the city when it is in its most beautiful attire.

The session closed at 5 o'clock Tuesday afternoon.

London, May 29.—A bill to enable the British Museum to rid its archives of tons of advertising rubbish has been introduced in parliament. It is expected to pass without dissent. Otherwise, another addition to the Museum will be necessary.

By the copyright act of 1911, advertisements ranked as books and pamphlets and as such had to be filed in the Museum in order to establish a copyright. Under the amendment, only those advertisements likely to be of interest to posterity need be accepted.

COMMENCEMENT DAY AT THE WOMAN'S COLLEGE

SIXTY NINTH ANNUAL EXERCISES WERE HELD TUESDAY.

Diplomas Awarded to Large Class—Dr. Spencer's Address Pointed to High Ideals—President's Statement Shows Year of Growth.

The sixty ninth commencement of the Woman's college was under the most auspicious circumstances. Music hall was well filled with a deeply interested audience while on the stage sat the faculty, trustees and honored guests of the occasion. In front were the young ladies, students of the college no more, and near them sisters of the lower classes and the sight was inspiring. The music was especially fine and all that pertained to the occasion was in keeping with its importance. After the Triumphal March by Costa, rendered on the organ by Henry V. Stearns, Dr. Harker called on Dr. Harvey Jones of St. Louis, conference visitor from the St. Louis conference, to offer prayer.

Scripture reading was rather a recitation of the 121st Psalm and a part of the fourth chapters of Philippians. A hymn was sung by the audience and then Dr. Harker introduced Rev. C. B. Spencer, D. D., of Kansas City, editor of the Central Christian Advocate as the speaker of the occasion. Dr. Harker in introducing him said there was cause for thankfulness that the gentleman was able to be present and as he had been thrown from an automobile in San Francisco not long ago and had sustained injuries from which he is now suffering but which did not prevent him from being present.

Dr. Spencer's Address.

Dr. Spencer said he was glad to be present and highly praised the energy and perseverance which had brought the college to its present fine condition. It might be said of Dr. Harker and the work he had accomplished, as was said of Sir Christopher Wren in the Westminster Abbey, "If you would see my monument look about you."

Of the gentleman's fine discourse a few extracts only are offered.

"My theme is the ideal of life as portrayed and shown in the world's perfect pattern, Jesus Christ. I refer esjecially to the temptation. The epics of the Bible are not like those of Dante and other great writers who deal in glowing portrayals of heaven, hell and kindred subjects but a man alone working for humanity. How Satan approaches Him when weak and famished and bids Him use His divine power to turn the stones to bread. Had He done so mothers would have told the story to their children but that was not His divine purpose. When He came to live our lives He came all the way. He knew what it was to be hungry and faint. He knew what it was to suffer from hunger's pangs and so He came to sympathize with suffering man.

"Man cannot live by bread alone for there is something nobler and grander awaiting the man who attains to the highest and best in this life. All must toil; the woman as well as the man. Together must they solve the problem of human existence. What a grand outburst that was when the beloved disciple said if all the Master uttered had been written the world would not contain the books. How we long for more of His words and records kept at the time and recently some parchments have been found which meet this want. Our greatest ideal is expressed in the one word, service. I saw a statue of Lincoln in an eastern city and on the arm and cheeks were yellow spots and I was told they were caused by children affectionately passing their fingers over the bronze turning it to gold. Let your lives be full of service for greater love hath no man than a man lay down his life.

Miss Louise Miller then most capably sang a song of thanksgiving and the certificates and diplomas were presented. The president read his statement the college song was sung and Dr. Spencer pronounced the benediction.

The following were recipients of certificates and diplomats:

Candidates for Certificates.

Certificate in public school music—Ima Carmen Berryman, Jacksonville; Iva Mae Cannon, Pittsfield; Marian Newlin, Robinson; Elizabeth J. Slaughter, Jacksonville.

Certificate of profiency in art—Lucy Ellen Royse, Jacksonville.

Candidates for Diplomas.

College of music—Ima Carmen Berryman, Jacksonville.

School of expression—Corinne S. Hughes, Waverly.

Candidates for Bachelor's Degree.

Bachelor of arts—Audrey G. Berryman, Jacksonville; Dorothy Irene Crum, Springfield; Helen Priscilla Dinsmore, Jacksonville; Emily Louise Harries, Mattoon; Feril Hess, New York City; Helena Fey Munson, Rushville; Mary Louise Powell, Jacksonville; Lucille Reinbach, Jacksonville.

Bachelor of science in home economics—Winifred E. Burmeister, Redwood Falls, Minn.; Josephine Ross, Jacksonville; Effie M. Theobald, Jacksonville.

Charge to the Graduates.

In advancing you to the rank of bachelor and giving you this public recognition that you are graduates of the Illinois Woman's college, I am admitting you to a most ancient and honorable order composed of all these everywhere who have enjoyed the privileges and bear the responsibilities of college training and scholarly culture. Especially I am admitting you to the company of graduates of this college, a most noble band of women now scattered through all the states of the union, and some of them to the uttermost parts of the earth.

The securing of this degree is not the end of your college life, it is in a real sense its beginning. So far you have been on trial, now you are admitted to full membership—honored and accepted members, entering into all the rights and privileges of the order.

We are here to welcome your incoming. In the name of the Illinois Woman's college I charge you to prove yourselves worthy of this high honor. Magnify its privileges and responsibilities. Make yourselves from the very beginning, active members, constantly identified with every interest of your alma mater. Do all you can to make strong the bond between all the members of the order, and to make that bond effective for everything for which the college stands.

It is fitting that you do publicly declare your purpose so to do, and I ask you to join in the college promise:

I receive this degree with a deep sense of obligation thus conferred, and I promise to hold it with honor to myself with generous and abiding loyalty to my alma mater, and with purpose to render every possible womanly service.

And may the Lord bless you and keep you, making you to abound in all good works, and faithful to the end.

When the graduates were seated, President Harker read his annual statement, which was as follows:

President's Annual Statement.

We are closing the sixty-ninth year of the history of the college. Again the good hand of our God has been upon us for good through all the year, and we have been singularly free from sickness and accident. It is cause for special thankfulness that when so many persons are gathered under one roof, there are so few cases of serious illness and so rapid recovery. The college is fortunate to have a separate cottage for the care of contagious diseases, and especially in having the watchful care and skill of an efficient nurse, Miss Miner. We installed last summer a vacuum cleaning system for the entire college, and it has proved a satisfactory and profitable investment. The health of students and faculty is one of our first considerations, and nothing is left undone to secure as perfect sanitary conditions as possible.

The year has been one of progress in many ways. The attendance has been somewhat less than that of last year, owing to the stringency of business conditions, but the attendance in the college of liberal arts has been 197, a larger number than ever before. Considerable additions have been made to the equipment in a number of departments, especially in chemistry.

The High Standard of the College.

In this connection I ough to call special attention to the general recognition of the high scholastic rank of the college. We are ranked in group A of colleges by the university senate of the Methodist Episcopal church; we are in the list of colleges accredited by the North Central association; and we are on the list of colleges recognized by the Illinois state superintendent of instruction as of standard college rank, whose students are entitled by law to teachers' certificates without examination. For the last two years one of our graduates has been awarded a fellowship each year at the University of Illinois for graduate work, and has received the master's degree in one year. This has put us in class A of colleges recognized by the universities for graduate work, and we have received letters from ten of the leading universities of the country, asking us to present candidates for fellowship for their graduate degrees. All this is unusual college recognition, and should satisfy the most critical inquiry as to the efficiency of our college work. Everything possible will be done not only to maintain, but even to advance this high standard. Our friends can do the college no greater service than by making known, as widely as possible, these facts as to the actual character and general collegiate recognition of our work.

The Facutly.

This high standard is due primarily to the efficiency and high scholarly attainment of the faculty. All are graduates of standard colleges, eleven have the degree of master of arts, and all have had special training in their respective departments. Many of them still further increase their efficiency by spending their summers in advanced special study. They are thoroughly equipped for their work, interested not only in their subjects, but in the students, and they have worked together harmoniously for the advancement of college ideals and spirit. It is greatly to the advantage of the college, and a matter of personal pleasure to me, that so many of the teachers remain with us from year to year. I wish it were possible to show our appreciation by adequate increase of salaries. We shall do everything possible to retain the teachers who thus continue to prove their efficiency and loyalty, and new teachers will be chosen wholly because of their genuine personality and character, their high scholarship, and special teaching ability.

The Board of Trustees.

Since the last commencement we have been bereaved by the death of two of the oldest members of the board, S. R. Capps and Rev. Dr. Horace Reed. Mr. Capps first became a trustee in 1871, during the presidency of Dr. William H. DeMotte. He served thirteen years, resigning in 1884. He was again elected in 1894 and served continuously until his death in 1914, a total service of thirty-three years. He was always devoted to the best interests of the college, and faithful in all his relations to it. We honor him and greatly esteem his high personal character and his great service to college, church and community.

To fill the vacancy caused by Mr. Capps' death the board has elected Mrs. Belle Short Lambert of the class of '73, daughter of the beloved President Short, for many years an alumnae trustee and secretary of the Alumnae association. This is a most fitting recognition of the efficient, faithful and devoted service which Mrs. Lambert has been giving to the college for many years.

Dr. Horace Reed was one of the conference official visitors for 1893 to 1895. In that year he was elected a trustee and served with great efficiency and faithfulness for 18 years, till 1913, when at his own urgent request, because of advancing years, his resignation was accepted. He was appointed again as one of the conference official visitors and served in this capacity till his death in November, 1914. For two years, 1905 to 1907, Dr. Reed served as field secretary of the college and rendered great help in securing the $100,000 raised at that time for endowment and Music hall. His interest in the college was genuine and sincere and he delighted in making friends for it. He had an unusually clear vision of its possibilities of growth and usefulness. He was one of my closest personal friends and most helpful advisors. We miss him greatly and we honor his memory.

The term of two of the alumnae trustees expires this year — Mrs. Lambert and Mrs. Rowe. Mrs. Lambert has resigned as alumnae trustee because of her appointment in the place of Mr. Capps. The nominations for the alumnae trustees are made by ballot of the alumnae, and I am happy to announce that they have again honored Mrs. Marietta Mathers Rowe by re-election, a fitting recognition of her interest and service. In Mrs. Lambert's place they have elected Mrs. Annie Deavis Gist of the class of '84, whom we welcome into the councils of the college.

Aumnae and Former Students.

Alumnae and former students are giving promise of taking a more active and vital interest in the college than they have done before. The meetings of the college societies this year at Decatur, Champaign, Springfield, Chicago, St. Louis and Los Angeles have been well attended and enthusiastic. There is a greater desire to know of college needs and some are asking how they can assist in the college advancement.

The alumnae memorial scholarship fund of $35,000, providing a $5,000 scholarship in honor of each of the seven presidents of the college, has now reached a total of $16,000 actually paid in. It will be a great inspiration if this fund can be reported fully paid a year from now, at the seventieth anniversary of the founding of the college.

I hope this class of 1915 will break the records in these respects. Subscribe for the Greetings, respond at once with remittance of fee when the secretary writes you, and come back as a unit to the next commencement.

TALKING SICKNESS

Your liver may be out of joint, your spare ribs raw and sore, you may be driven to anoint your spavins more and more, but talk of more uplifting things than aches and fell disease; discuss the mocking bird that sings its ragtime in the trees; discuss the virtues of your cook, or quote Ed. Markham's rhyme, or talk about the latest book by E. P. Oppenheim. The dreariest of human bores is that one who explains the facts about his aches and sores, his bunions and his sprains. He tires us with his tales of bile that runs in turgid brooks, and everyone will spring a smile when he goes off the hooks. I've always found that those who spieled of pains that never ceased, until the hearer's blood congealed, were those who suffered least. The martyrs with rheumatic limbs, whose life should be a curse, are often busy singing hymns because things are no worse. But talking of the ills that make your nervous system jump, won't drive away a throbbing ache, or cure a single mump. 'Twill only bore the friends you have, their peace your whining spoils; so talk of songs instead of salve, of books instead of boils.

Brooklyn 5, Philadelphia 4.

Brooklyn, June 1.—Zack Wheat was the hero of a 5 to 4 eleven-inning victory by the Brooklyns over Philadelphia. After the visitors had forged ahead by a ninth inning rally, Wheat came up with two out and two strikes called and tied the score with a homer to deep left. He came up again in the eleventh with the bases full and one out and scored O'Mara with the winning run by making an infield hit. Score:

OPEN AIR SCHOOL CLOSED.

The open air school was closed at noon Tuesday. The board gave orders for closing Monday, but it was hoped that means might be devised to keep it open during the summer months.

Tuesday morning the members of the Anti-Tuberculosis league held a meeting in the hope that enough finances could be raised to continue the school. They were unable to raise the necessary funds, hence the closing.

The children have planted a garden in the rear of the school. It is intended to have them come to the clinic each Tuesday and Friday for examination. Someone will be there on these days to look after them and the garden will be taken care of.

"MORNING GLANCES"
(By Gosh)

Cobb went hitless Tuesday, Faber seeming to have his number.

James pitched a great game for St. Louis, holding Cleveland to one run, that coming in the first inning.

—:-|-:—

Veach who plays left field for Detroit seemed to be the only Tiger to solve Faber's benders. He got a double and a triple.

—:-|-:—

Walter Johnson won another game Tuesday, the famous white elephants being his victims. Washington only got four hits off of Wyckoff and Bressler but they were mixed with errors in such a manner as to net five runs.

—:-|-:—

Eddie Collins beat the Detroit team by himself Tuesday. He made three of the hits and scored three runs for the Sox in the game with Detroit. Incidentally Faber won his eighth straight game for the Sox.

—:-|-:—

Zabel pitching for the Cubs on Tuesday shut out Pittsburgh. He held them to two hits. The Cubs got six off of Adams and McQuillan and won 2 to 0.

—:-|-:—

Brooklyn beat Philadelphia in eleven innings Tuesday. Zach Wheat was the hero. He tied up the game in the ninth with a home run and won it in the eleventh with an infield hit with the bases full.

MARKET LETTERS

CHICAGO MARKET.

Union Stock Yards, Chicago, May 31—Oliver S. Green, with Walter Bros., Union Stock Yards, Chicago, reports estimate receipts Monday, May 31, 11,000 cattle; 30,000 hogs and 8,000 sheep. Early the market was slow but closed active and strong, and in the free area the market was strong and generally 10 cents higher, with places called 10 to 15 higher. Good weight cattle were full as high as last Wednesday. There was a smaller proportion of yearlings and they sold better than on the slumpy markets last Thursday and Friday. For a holiday market it was a very satisfactory trade. Heavy cattle from 9.25 to 9.30, the highest level since the rise. While there was not much difference in the different divisions, but of the good cattle were in the free area and that makes the sales in the division look higher. There was quite a string of cattle at 9.15 to 9.30. Some fancy 1412 pounds steers, 17 head, at 9.50. They were bought for the North Dakota Board of Trade. A popular price for steers was 9c. 8.50 was paid for plain short feed stuff not carrying much quality or flesh. A liberal showing of 9 to 9.25. A number of Herefords weighing 1230 at 8.85. About 8,000 of the receipts went into the free area. As the killing gang were not working today and a few thousand more may have had a reverse for the market. Iowa and North Dakota furnished a liberal supply of the receipts. Kansas and Nebraska were also in evidence with a fairly good number. Cattle selling at 8 to 8.25 were not in heavy receipts and sold steady to strong. Below that it was for grassy and half fat short fed class. No extra prime yearlings reported and the best on sale sold at 9.10. Butcher cows and heifers of the desirable kinds recovered Friday's decline, many selling up to last week's below level. The strength was less weaker in the dairy and canner stuff. Bulls 10c higher. Veal calves 25c lower. The holiday influence was a factor in the calve market. Fat cows 5.35 to 7.60. Canners and cutters 3.20 to 5.25. Heifers 5.60 to 8.75, with an odd one or two that are fancy up to 9c. Bulls from 5.35 to 7.25. Heavy calves from 5.25 to 8.75. Choice to prime vealers 9 to 9.50, but the 9.50 kind in a short supply.

The early hog market active and unevenly higher and the top made 7.90, but the run early was called 28,000, but later 30 to 31,000. The market was slumpy and closed 10c lower. Bulk of the trade early 7.70 to 7.85, and some left unsold. The range of prices was wider with packers in the most decline. Top 25c above a week ago, with an average of 19c higher. The quality was good.

The live mutton trade showed strength over Friday. Shorn lambs reached 10.30. Shippers paid 11.60 for strong lambs. Good shorn ewes 5.50. Native slip lambs 7 to 10, Western fed clip lambs 7 to 10.35, Bucks 4.50 to 5c. Native lambs 11.50 to 11.60. Shorn lambs 6 to 7.50. Native clipped ewes 4 to 5.50.

The Eagles went to Ashland today where they will play the Ashland team. The occasion is the Ashland horse show. It is not likely that either Ashland or the Eagles will have their regular lineups.

GRADUATION EXERCISES AT SCHOOL FOR BLIND

HON. FRED J. KERN SPEAKS WORDS OF ENCOURAGEMENT.

Admitting That the State Does Not Yet Discharge Full Duty, He Urges Graduates to Strive for Best—Supt. H. C. Montgomery Presents Diplomas to Class of Seven.

A class of seven were graduated Tuesday afternoon at the Illinois School for the Blind when Supt. H. C. Montgomery at the close of appropriate exercises presented diplomas to Miss Myrtle H. Ernst of Peoria, Miss Bertha L. Pulley of Marion, Miss Marie L. Shaffer of Decatur, Howard W. Collins of Union, Fred G. Faster of Bradford, Ellis M. Horton of Dixon and Earl F. Knowles of Decatur. The commencement address by Hon. Fred J. Kern, president of the board of administration, was instructive and thought- provoking. Recognizing the great difficulties besetting the blind as they go forth to earn a livelihood, he said the state should follow the blind man or woman beyond the institution and if necessary lend aid in pension form.

Especially good were the musical numbers. There were present a large number of friends and former students and these expressed appreciation by close attention and sincere applause. The invocation was given by the Rev. J. W. Miller, pastor of Grace M. E. church. The musical numbers were given by the orchestra and by the senior chorus, Fred Foster, Ethel Spera and Claude Rynders.

"That these schools are created for the education of the defective clases we do not admit", said Mr. Kern in speaking of the institutions for the Blind and the Deaf, inaugurated by the state some seventy-five years ago in Jacksonville. "The training in these schools, rather, is of a nature highly specialized and I am here to congratulate the teachers who have dedicated their lives to so noble a work. The calling of a teacher for the blind is more than a profession; it is a science. Any day a teacher from this or its sister institution can go to the public schools of the state and work successfully. It would be hard indeed for a teacher from the day schools to undertake the specialized duties here required.

The Duty of the State.

"Education is defined as a harmonious development of the whole man, the better to fit the person educated for the manifold duties of life. True education, then, can result in nothing but good citizenship. Our conception of the place of this school should mean more than ever. It is our mission here to make good citizens of the young people enrolled; to give them what we can of this education and so far as may be possible to make them self-supporting. We realize the fearful handicap arising from blindness. With this in mind I think the duty of the state goes far beyond the confines of these walls. Inasmuch as the state can not, under present conditions, make each blind person entirely self supporting adequate pensions should, in my opinion, be supplied to meet the deficiency caused by this great handicap.

"There are in the world two theories of government, 'that government is best which governs least', says the one school and this view I might dub 'philosophic anarchism'. When lawlessness has been suppressed and such simple duties as the police power and the punishment of crime performed, the state has done its part; say advocates of this governmental theory. A socialistic state, all embracing, gathering to itself the totality of collective enterprise—this is the ideal government of the opposing school of thought. Practical infallibility is claimed by both and both presume to have the panacea for all human ills. Seeing alike the good in both we in America have attempted to steer between the two extremes. We have avoided state socialism on the one hand and complete individualism on the other. Our institutions, schools, postal system and immense movements of collective endeavor are healthful signs I think of governmental growth. My dictum then would be: 'that government is best which governs least, but which at the same time assumes all functions which it can perform in manner better and more efficient than can any other agency.'

"Complete education for self-support would be the ideal condition. As a part only can reach this plane this pension idea should be worked out and embodied into law. Every blind man on the street with hand extended, asking for alms, is a disgrace not only to himself but to the state. A pension law should provide payment by the state or, as is true with veterans, by the national government. The present law, a virtual dead letter, providing pensions for the blind at option of the counties might first well be repealed.

To Graduates of I. S. B.

"To the graduates then, I would say, as you have reached the point where all that we can do has now been done, we wish you well. I would wish none to think of his education as a thing complete. That you carry your education, and your training for the best in citizenship to the end of your days is my honest, my sincere wish, for all of you. Though the handicap with which you enter life is tremendous you possess the double blessing of sound health and active minds. Become students all of you and apply yourselves ever, and though you know the state may owe a further duty you should exhaust every endeavor to attain a station of freedom self-support and efficient citizenship.

"With all this I would enjoin loyalty. No sin is greater than the sin of him who forgets a benefactor. The lowest pits of Dante's Hell were reserved for men guilty of ingratitude. Your state and nation I ask you to revere, your school and teachers. I ask you to remember and that you always love and cherish this great and magnificent institution, is my earnest wish."

since 1909 of a day annually as near this date as convenient, in memory of the founders of the college, has met with increasing favor and interest every year. Last year the day was specially devoted to the memory of Archibald Clark Wadsworth, who died in 1911, after a distinguished service of forty-five years as trustee of the college, and of twenty-two years as president of the board of trustees. We do well thus to recall each year the debt we owe to the men and women who have founded and sustained the college.

This year Thursday, Oct. 14, will be thus observed as Founders' day, and I suggest that this date be set apart by all former students as a Woman's College get together day. In every village or town where two or more former students live let them "get together" and recall college days. Let them talk of the college and write to the college and in all possible ways use the day for the revival of college interest. I believe that if Founders' day is used in this way annually it will result before many years in a great revival of interest and in much good for the college.

A practice worth continuing is that of presenting on Founders' day portraits of those who have helped to establish the college. We now have portraits of former presidents Jaquess, Adams, DeMotte and Short. We ought to have portraits of Presidents Andrus and McCoy. We also have portraits of William Thomas, Dr. W. H. Milburn, Peter Akers, Mathew Stacy, W. D. R. Trotter, John Mathers, A. C. Wadsworth and Julius E. Strawn. Mrs. Susie Brown Dillon, of Topeka, Kan., has promised a portrait of her father, the Hon. William Brown, one of the early trustees, and President James of the University of Illinois writes that he will send a portrait of his father Rev. Colen D. James, who had a large part in the saving of the college in the dark days of 1862. We ought to have many more such portraits, especially we should complete the list of the orginal trustees.

Students and Student Organizations.

The year has been most satisfactory as to student relations and student organizations. The student council has been superseded by the Students' association, to which the trustees and faculty have entrusted the management of all matters concerning the conduct of students and student organizations, in co-operation with a committee of the faculty. The association has shown much ability, good judgment and college loyalty in the conduct of all these matters.

It will be interesting to note the choice of studies and number of students enrolled in each department of instruction:

The Library.

I call your attention especially to the library as one of the most important factors in college equipment. Every department of college instruction is largely dependent on the library for its enficiency. The college has no greater need than a good library endowment, and there is no greater opportunity for some of our friends than to take the library on their hearts and start the endowment by a liberal gift. What a splendid memorial a gift of $25,000 for such a purpose would be. But while we wait for such endowment, we are making good progress by smaller gifts. During the past year about 400 volumes have been thus contributed to the value of more than $600.

We have now only about $20,000 subscribed on the required $100,000 and we must set ourselves vigorously to secure the other $80,000. The executive committee and the endowent committee have been authorized to make such plans and secure such assistance as may be necessary to bring success by the final date, Jan. 1, 1916.

The college must have a total of $200,000 endowment in order to remain a standard college. We have made a great academic record in the last few years, and we cannot recede. This endowment must be secured. The order has been made to go forward, and it is ours only to obey.

The Gymnasium.

How often we have dreamed of an adequate well equipped gymnasium. No need is more imperativee, nor would any simple addition to the equipment be of more actual practical advantage. Ten years ago we were so near to a gymnasium that plans and specifications were actually made for one. But these had to be laid aside for larger plans for Music hall and Harker hall and endowment, and we are waiting still. How much more we need it now than we did then!—with more than twice the attendance, and a constantly increasing interest in physical training. Where is the friend who will meet this pressing need? I believe that this friend is already living, only waiting to be discovered, as America was in the fifteenth century. Who will be the happy Columbus to make this great discovery? Perhaps our alumnae may help us find the way. What a joyful celebration our seventieth anniversary will be next year if the gymnasium can be assured at that time.

Another $100,000 Endowment.

The pledges of two years ago for $182,000 have been paid in with gratifying promptness. One-third of each pledge is not due till next Wednesday, June 4, but already a large number of the pledges have been paid in full. Altogether there has been paid $152,000 of the $182,000 subscribed, leaving only $30,000 still to be paid. Of the 1,226 subscribers, 737 have paid in full. A large number of the others will pay in full in June after receiving notice of the payment then due. If any friends cannot so pay, the endowment committee will request them to change their pledge into a note, bearing interest at 5 per cent from June 4, 1915, so as to make the whole amount available as productive endowment.

There still remains for us the completion of our campaign to secure another $100,000 of endowment. This must be secured by Jan. 1, 1916, now only a few months distant. We have delayed our active public campaign in order that the Illinois Wesleyan university might finish her endowment effort for $550,000. We are happy to know that this is now assured, and we have sent a message of heartiest congratulations to President Kemp on this great accomplishment.

The Seventieth Anniversary.

For we are going to have a great occasion a year from now, in celebration of the seventieth anniversary of the founding of the college. It will be a great year, because we expect the largest attendance of students we have ever had, and we are planning to graduate a class of more than twenty from the academy and a class of more than twenty degree seniors from the college. We expect to go forward in every college department, and do the best work that has ever been done.

We also hope to be able to announce at the seventieth anniversary:

1. That we have successfully finished our campaign for the additional $100,000 of endowment, and
2. That the gymnasium is assured.

We also expect to have plans all arranged for still another forward college movement to culminate in 1918.

We invite the co-operation of all our friends to these needs. The college has thousands of friends. Help us to get them united. Help us to bring all our friends to see how much the college needs, and how greatly it deserves. Help us to induce them to invest some of their savings in making here for thousands of girls in the coming years a larger, richer and more capable womanhood. They have been making and saving money. How can we persuade them to transmute that money into character and ability that will bless thousands of homes, and leave with higher ideals hundreds of communities? How can we cause them to see that money is not worth much until it ass produced something which money cannot buy?

This is our problem. May God help us to work it out with energy and fidelity. I do not know how it is to be solved, but I am assured that if you and I and all the friends of the college do their plain duty, all that we have planned will be accomplished in the next year.

GRAVES OF THE VETERANS SHOULD BE MARKED.

Considerable difficulty was experienced Monday in locating the graves of the veterans for decoration purposes. The sextons of the various cemeteries did the best they could but lack of acquaintance made it impossible for them to designate nearly all the last resting places of the departed veterans laid to rest in this vicinity. When Mr. Stout was alive he had quite a complete record but he seems to have kept it in such a way that no one but himself could use it and now that he is gone no one has his knowledge.

There should be some systematic way in which all the graves of the departed soldiers whose bodies are buried in the cemeteries of Jacksonville may be designated and a record kept so that for all time to come they may be known and decorated May 30th.

ABOUT CHINCH BUGS.

A good number of farmers from nearly every direction from the city were interviewed Tuesday regarding the condition of the chinch bug crop and in nearly all cases the opinions given were hopeful. Robert Coates said he thought even potato bugs had been set back and much destroyed by the rains. W. G. Richardson said he had seen very few. J. H. Hubbs of Prentice said in that vicinity he had heard of few. Several other farmers were seen and all gave an encouraging report regarding the pest, especially the young crop. One man said he gathered quite a lot that seemed dormant and took them and warmed them up and only one showed life. The mature bugs can hardly injure the wheat and it seems as if the rains and cold weather had destroyed many of the young.

MURRAYVILLE.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Bushnell and family of Barrow, spent several days last week with their daughter, Mrs. Roy Marsh and family, being called here to see the new grandson which was born to Rev. and Mrs. March, Sunday, May 23rd.

Miss Mary Frichat returned to her home in Springfield the first of last week after a pleasant visit at the home of her cousin, C. T. Davis and family.

Mrs. R. Carson has been very sick the past week, but at this writing is on the mend.

London, May 31.—An internment camp for German aliens maintained by the Seamen's Union for members of that trade union is unequal. The camp, called Estcote camp, is located near Blisworth, and the War Office has nothing to do with it. It occupies an attractive sixty-acre estate and houses about 800 aliens. After the war the Union intends to make a home for mariners.

Twenty-seven acres of the property are enclosed by a high fence erected by the government and the government allows the Union $2.50 a week for each man interned. The huts and buildings, mostly of brick and stone, have been erected and equiped by the inmates, all of whom are seamen and mostly members of the Union. The camp is guarded by nine members of the county constabulary, but the guard is mainly perfunctory. The camp is technically a place of detention, but the detention is to a great extent voluntary. There is little to prevent any man escaping if he wants to but as a matter of fact only one prisoner has escaped. He was captured some time later, but the camp authorities refused to take him back and he was interned elsewhere.

The inmates, being mostly old sailors, rather enjoy their confinement. They have plenty to eat, nothing to do and plenty of elbow room. There is an interesting little model port in the grounds, with model ships of all kinds, both liners and warships, with model wharves, piers, cranes and other equipment. The inmates show great ingenuity in adding to this. They also do a good deal of work in the gardens, and are now engaged in digging a large swimming pool in the estate.

WOMEN FROM 45 to 55 TESTIFY

To the Merit of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound during Change of Life.

Westbrook, Me. — "I was passing through the Change of Life and had pains in my back and side and was so weak I could hardly do my housework. I have taken Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and it has done me a lot of good. I will recommend your medicine to my friends and give you permission to publish my testimonial." — Mrs. LAWRENCE MARTIN, 12 King St., Westbrook, Maine.

Manston, Wis. — "At the Change of Life I suffered with pains in my back and loins until I could not stand. I also had night-sweats so that the sheets would be wet. I tried other medicine but got no relief. After taking one bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I began to improve and I continued its use for six months. The pains left me, the night-sweats and hot flashes grew less, and in one year I was a different woman. I know I have to thank you for my continued good health ever since." — Mrs. M. J. BROWNELL, Manston, Wis.

The success of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, is unparalleled in such cases.

If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman, and held in strict confidence.

Baby of Future is Considered

Much thought has been given in late years to the subject of maternity. In the cities there are maternity hospitals equipped with modern methods. But most women prefer their own homes and in the towns and villages must prefer them. And since this is true we know from the great many splendid letters written on the subject that our "Mother's Friend" is a great help to expectant mothers. They write of the wonderful relief, how it seemed to allow the muscles to expand without undue strain and what a splendid influence it was on the nervous system. Such helps as "Mother's Friend" and the broader knowledge of them should have a helpful influence upon babies of the future. Science says that an infant derives its sense and builds its character from cutaneous impressions. And a tranquil mother certainly will transmit a more healthful influence than if she is extremely nervous from undue pain. This is what a host of women believe who used "Mother's Friend" during their period of expectancy.

These points are more thoroughly explained in a little book mailed free.

"Mother's Friend" is sold in all drug stores and highly recommended for its timely usefulness, its safeness and the real help it affords. Ask for it at the store and write us for the book. Bradfield Regulator Co., 511 Lamar Bldg., Atlanta, Ga.

The effect of this splendid external application is an expression of the thousands of women who have successfully used it and recommended it through two generations.

COCOANUT OIL MAKES A SPLENDID SHAMPOO

If you want to keep your hair in good condition, the less soap you use the better.

Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali. This dries the scalp, makes the hair brittle, and is very harmful. Just plain mulsified cocoanut oil (which is pure and entirely greaseless), is much better than soap or anything else you can use for shampooing, as this can't possibly injure the hair.

Simply moisten your hair with water and rub it in. One or two teaspoonfuls will make an abundance of rich, creamy lather, and cleanses the hair and scalp thoroughly. The lather rinses out easily, and removes every particle of dust, dirt, dandruff and excessive oil. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and it leaves it fine and silky, bright, fluffy and easy to manage.

You can get mulsified cocoanut oil at most any drug store. It is very cheap, and a few ounces is enough to last everyone in the family for months.

KANSAS CITY LIVE STOCK.
Kansas City Stock Yards, May 31, 1915—It is generally figured that stock cattle are worth more at the beginning of grass than a month later, but the stocker market has held firm all through May. Shipments last week were 5000 head, and the total outgo for May is 33,000 head, six thousand more than in May last year. Stock steers ranged from $7.25 to $8.50; feeders, $7.65 to $8.40, and some choice panhandle yearlings brought $8.60. A year ago the top on feeders was $7.75, and on the stock steers $8.25. There is very little opinion opposed to the theory that fat cattle are going to keep on advancing, and the immense contracts from Europe now in the hands of packers in this country insure a healthy demand for meat for some time ahead, conditions which stimulate stocker and feeder purchases. Mr. E. E. Rockhold, of Bainbridge, Ohio, bought two cars of 450-lb. stock steers and heifers here last week at $8.50 per cwt., and fairly expressed the feeling of many stockmen when he said, "There is no use coming a long distance to market to buy common cattle. Our grass is good and we seem to have a fairly good prospect of raising a normal crop of corn, and not to handle cattle means certain loss." The necessity for reducing feeding costs, and a method of doing it, was suggested by W. J. Thelow, Monroe County, Mo., who said while here on a buying expedition last week, "Cattle feeding for profit must be abandoned unless we discover a cheaper feed. Our good blue grass is cheap, and when cattle get corn with it they gain in weight rapidly and at much less expense than in winter on more costly rations." Receipts of cattle Monday were 6,000 head, market slow steady, including stockers and feeders. Packers are beginning to get access to a good many South Texas grass cattle, and fleshy feeders will get less competition from them, and will sell lower in the near future. Choice young cows are selling at $6.25 to $6.75. —J. A. Rickart, Market Correspondent.

London, May 27.—The theory that a man's body may contain enough electricity to set off a charge of explosive, was put forward this week by a government expert on combustibles to account for an explosion at Stowmarket which resulted in the death of four men.

Major Cooper-Key, the expert, expressed the opinion that one of the men had accumulated electricity in his body, "and not having earthed himself, a spark passed through a dangerous commodity and so caused it to explode." He added: "It was an exceptional accident, which could probably have been prevented by the insertion of a metal stud in the worker's rubber overshoes. A regulation to this effect will probably be made in the future."

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Devore and children were up to the city yesterday from the vicinity of Woodson.

ESTIMATES OF BIG WHEAT CROP BRING SHARP DECLINE IN PRICE

Readjustment of Values to Square With the Outlook for the New Crop Brings About Heavy Liquidating Sales—Other Leading Staples Show Losses.

Chicago, June 1.—Estimates of the 1915 crop in the United States would be 50,000,000 bushels more than was estimated for the growth this time a year ago had a good deal to do today with a sharp decline in prices. The market closed steady but 3¼c to 4¾c under Saturday night's figures. Other leading staples, too, showed a net loss—corn ¾@1c to 1⅛@1¼c; oats 1¼@1⅜c to 1⅞c@1⅞c and provisions 5@7½ to 20c.

Readjustment of values to square with the outlook for the new crop of wheat brought about heavy liquidating sales by holders and also resulted in continued pressure from shorts. Besides, weather conditions both southwest and northwest were of a kind to favor the bears.

Harvesting was said to be general throughout northern Texas with chances that cutting would be underway in central Oklahoma less than a week from now. A break in prices at Liverpool due in part to free offerings from India tended further to demoralize the bull side here.

Profit taking by shorts caused a moderate reaction in the wheat market near the close. The rally was helped a little by a liberal decrease in the United States visible supply total. On the other hand, the quietness of export call acted as a check on any decided upturn.

Corn suffered chiefly owing to the break in wheat. Better field conditions and some enlargement of rural offerings tended also to drive away support. In oats as in corn, the principal guide was the action of wheat. Near the end of the session however, oats were somewhat affected by rumors of big sales to Europe.

STOCKS ARE DULL FOLLOWING PUBLICATION OF GERMAN REPLY

Affairs in Mexico Also Enter in Speculative Calculations—Opening Prices are Lower But Some Stocks Make General Recoveries Later.

New York, June 1.—Stocks were dull and heavy today, following the publication of Germany's reply to Washington's note of inquiry. Affairs in Mexico, which point to decisive action by this government, also entered in speculative calculations. Opening prices were lower by 1 to 3 points, war specialties and other manipulated issues loseing most ground. Later, some of these stocks made general recoveries. Bethlehem Steel and General Electric recording material gains but the movement as a whole was without significance. Total sales amounted to 214,000 shares, of which almost half represented the turnover of the first hour. Foreign exchange continued to reflect the sensitive state of the European money markets, Paris checks making the new low record of 5.43¾, which means that it takes more francs to buy an American dollar than ever before. Lires also weakened, being quoted at 5.93, against 5.82 last Saturday. After the close of the market remittances on Rome were quoted at 5.95, equalling the recent low quotation. Bills on London were little changed and the inquiry for remittances to that center was extremely light. More gold was received here from Ottawa and the prospects favor additional shipments from Canada and France.

Local time loans were easier; though quotably unchanged. Last week's further gain in excess reserves was duplicated at other reserve cities. Chicago and St. Louis also showing lower tendencies for long maturities.

A Forced Sale

We must meet impending obligations. Our immense stock of New Spring and Summer merchandise is entirely too large for this season of the year. We must reduce them at once—at any price—at any loss—merchandise knows no former selling prices—every price has been slashed in such a ridiculous manner that we are are almost giving goods away. Our entire store has been turned into one vast bargain counter—and now this fine stock is yours, at practically your own price. This is a great money-saving event for every woman in Jacksonville and vicinity. Tell your friends and neighbors of this sale. See our windows; they will open your eyes with amazement. ## IT'S SMOOTH AS SILK

A talcum powder containing the least particle of grit or foreign substance is not a proper powder to use on baby's tender skin—or on your own.

Before you accept a toilet powder rub a little on the back of the hand or on the tender part of the wrist—you will easily detect the presence of grit.

Apply this test to NYAL Mayflower Talcum

—you will notice two things—its perfect smoothness and a delightful odor. It is a delightful powder in every way.

Its smoothness combined with its antiseptic properties leaves the skin soft and velvety—and free from irritation.

SUFFRAGE LAW DECLARED TO BE IN DANGER AT CAPITAL

Mrs. Grace Wilbur Trout Wires That an Amendment Is Pending Which, if Passed, Might Nullify Present Law.

Mrs. J. H. Danskin last night received the following telegram from Mrs. Grace Wilbur Trout, president of the Illinois Equal Suffrage association, in which it is pointed out that there is some danger of the Illinois equal suffrage bill being so amended as to make women largely lose the rights conferred by the law now on the statute books. The telegram reads:

"Have men and women wire your senator—do not amend suffrage law. Vote against senate bill 294. Important. Bill comes up for consideration Wednesday."

Mrs. Danskin therefore suggests that as many citizens as possible who believe in suffrage for women and who recognize in the present law a great aid to the anti-saloon forces send telegrams today, as above indicated, to Senator E. S. Smith, Illinois General Assembly, Springfield, Ill.

COUNCIL CONFIRMS SOME APPOINTMENTS

CHARLES B. GRAFF IS THE NEW CITY TREASURER.

Various Department Employes Are Named by Commissioners Martin and Vasconcellos—Proposed Salary Cut is Explained.

Tuesday morning the city council held the business session which was adjourned from Monday morning. The appointments outlined in the Journal Tuesday morning were made and in addition Charles B. Graff was appointed treasurer. No statement was made as to when other appointments may be looked for. A communication was read from the trades and labor assembly protesting against a proposed reduction in the salary of city employes and another communication from W. N. Hairgrove as attorney for James Holt indicating that a suit will be brought against the city unless Mr. Holt's claim for personal damages received while in the employ of the city at Diamond Grove cemetery is paid.

After the reading of the minutes, Mr. Pyatt read the communication from the trades assembly which was in the form of a resolution adopted at a meeting held May 27th in which the assembly protested against a rumored decrease in the salaries of city employes and suggested that if reductions in salaries were to be made that they should begin with the mayor and commissioners, who are the highest salaried persons connected with the city government. Mention was made that most of the employes work from eight to twelve hours and that the present salaries are not at all excessive. The communication was received and placed on file.

Plan Cash Payment.

Mayor Rodgers said that since the communication had ben received that it afforded the opportunity to say that should reductions in salary which have bene talked about be made that as a matter of fact, the employes would not be injured. The proposition considered has been to reduce the salaries of employes about $5 a month which is not more than they have been paying in the past to have their warrants cashed. The idea of the administration has been that the salaries could be reduced to this extent and such arrangements made that employes would not be compelled to take due bills against the city or to hawk the warrants about and get them cashed in the best way possible. And while this plan would really not mean any loss to the employes, yet it would effect a considerable saving for the city. The communication from Mr. Hairgrove relative to the claim of James Holt set forth that he was injured in lifting a large urn, at Diamond Grove cemetery while in the employ of the city and that the injuries were such that he was in the hospital for a period of nearly two weeks attended by Dr. W. P. Duncan. The attorney suggested that the claim should be given attention if suit was to be avoided. The matter was referred to City Attorney Thompson for further investigation. The reports of officers were read and approved and properly approved bills were ordered paid when funds are available.

Department Reports Brief.

The reports from the departments were very brief. Mr. Cox said that the heavy rains had caused considerable trouble with sewers and that he had a number of men cleaning out the accummulation of mud. Mr. Cox also referred to the matter of oiled streets and said that he had been requested by a number of people to protest against the oiling plan. Mr. Rodgers was of the opinion that as a whole the advantages of oiling more than offset the disadvantages. And he said, that he had noticed one thing, that the slick pavements at corners had a good effect in making automobile drivers slow up. Mr. Cox said that a number of residents had asked him to leave some mud on the streets which were oiled on the theory that this had a tendency to make the pavement less slippery. Commissioner Martin was of the opinion that the oiled streets were dangerous to horses and also to automobiles.

Under the head of new business Commissioner Widmayer nominated Charles B. Graff as city treasurer and he was confirmed by a unanimous vote. Commissioner Martin then made the following appointments and they were also unanimously confirmed:

Police and Fire Departments.

Chief of Police—George P. Davis.

Chief of Fire Department—Samuel Hunt.

Assistant chief—Carl Cokely.

Hoseman and desk sergeant—Frank Kilorau.

Engineer—John Roach.

Hosemen—John Taylor, Earl Butcher, William Fensler.

Drivers—W. C. Osborne, James Samples, Henry Smith.

Stoker—Charles De Silva.

Commissioner Vasconcellos presented a list of appointments and they were confirmed by unanimous vote.

Water and Light Departments.

Mr. Vasconcellos announced the following appointments:

C. J. Roberts, meter reader, succeeding himself.

Gus Francis, lineman, succeeding himself.

In the light plant:

John W. Ricks, head engineer, succeeding himself.

George T. Stoldt, engineer, succeeing John T. Crowe.

Lawrence Quinlan, engineer, succeeding himself.

Fred Goes, fireman, succeeding himself.

Hiram Johnson, fireman, succeeding William Quinlan.

Manuel Baptist, fireman, succeeding himself.

At north end pumping station:

Roland L. Stice, engineer, succeeding Fred Brown.

George Souza, engineer, succeeding himself.

Fred Stubblefield, engineer, succeeding himself.

At south end pumping station:

Frank A. Kaule, engineer and fireman, succeeding James C. Montgomery.

Frank F. Vieira, engineer and fireman, succeeding Anthony Kennedy.

Frank Tate, janitor of city hall, succeeding C. W. Tinsley.

Mr. Vasconcellos said that in the interest of economy that he purposed to have only one lineman instead of two, and that for the present also he had abolished the position of meter repairer and that this work would be done by others. He said the receipts for the past month for meter repair work were but $4.50. It is Mr. Vasconcellos' plan to later on appoint an assistant mechanical engineer and the mechanical engineer and his assistant will have charge of all the repair work for both the light and water departments. Heretofore the mechanical engineer's duties have been practically confined to the water department. It is Mr. Vasconcellos' intention to economize in all ways possible and to have employes so trained that they will have the disposition to give aid in whatever department their services are required.

Mr. Cox made no formal statement but it is understood that he will serve as superintendent of streets himself and that Oliver Spaulding who has held that position will continue in the street service in another capacity.

Officers' Reports.

Reports of officers were as follows:

R. L. Pyatt reported receipts through the city clerk's office $169.50; from Jacksonville cemetery $84.50; from Diamond Grove cemetery $420.40. The report of F. G. Farrell, treasurer, showed a balance in the general fund, May 31, of $3,817.01. The report of Phil Grant, sexton of Diamond Grove cemetery, indicated that eighteen graves were made during the month of May.

The report from the water department signed by Commissioner Vasconcellos and Superintendent Cobb showed total collections of $2,917.50. This total was made up of collections $2,867; meters, $40; taps, $6, and meter repairs $4.50.

Miss Weller's report as city matron included the following facts: the cases of one colored boy and one colored girl who seem incorrigible have been investigated; one infant deserted by its mother has been sent to the grandparents in the southern part of the state; the case of a nine-year-old girl not in school and considered a menace to the neighborhood, was investigated, as was a recurrent case of the cruel treatment of an epileptic boy. Two delinquent girls were reported and application was made for a home for an orphan child. Cases of five orphan children placed by the juvenile court in the care of a brother were reported as needing further assistance. All relief possible was given in the cases mentioned.

SOCIAL EVENTS

Orleans Country Club Meeting.

The Orleans Country club met Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. George Holley. Mrs. A. A. Curry, whose subject was "The Anti-Tuberculosis Movement," gave the time to Mrs. A. L. Adams of Jacksonville, who was heard with unusual interest. The program was opened with music and there was a large attendance, including several visitors. Refreshments were served. The election of officers follows:

President—Mrs. Charles Davis.

Vice president—Mrs. A. A. Curry.

Secretary—Miss Violet Davis.

The next meeting will be held Tuesday, June 15, and will take the form of a picnic at the home of Mrs. W. H. Hinrichsen. An invitation has been extended the members of the Franklin Homemaker's Scientific circle to attend this event.

Surprise Party.

A surprise party was enjoyed by a number of young people of the Ebenezer neighborhood saturday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Patterson. Miss Edna Flynn was guest of honor, the occasion being to celebrate her birthday. Games furnished amusement for the evening which were greatly enjoyed by those present. Ample refreshments were served.

Those present were: Misses Pearl and Ruby Deweese, Murial and Beatrice Stanly, Pearl Bridgman, Clara Meyers, Nina and Lorene Flynn, Earl, Dillon and John Bridgman, John Furry, Will Hadden, Howard Martin, Charles Burmeister, Elmer Meyers, Philip Stanley, Floyd Flynn and Samuel Woods.

JOHN DAWSON IS BURIED IN JACKSONVILLE CEMETERY

Last Resting Place of Revolutionary Soldier Located Through Efforts of Miss Effie Epler.

Through the special efforts of Miss Effie Epler, the last resting place of John Dawson, a soldier of the American Revolution has been located in Jacksonville cemetery. He was buried there in 1839 but his grave had never been marked. For some time Miss Epler has been in correspondence with parties in other states and a thorough search has been made in Illinois, to find, if possible some clue to the place he was buried. A head slab has been placed at his grave and there is only one other Revolutionary soldier buried in Jacksonville cemetery, being Elijah Smith, who has relatives residing here. John Dawson was the grandfather of Bailey Dawson. He enlisted from the state of Virginia.

ARMORY FOR JACKSONVILLE.

Senator Smith's bill making an appropriation of $40,000 for an armory to be erected in Jacksonville passed the senate Tuesday. The bill will now go to the house for consideration. It is thought that it will pass the house.

Several weeks ago a similar bill was introduced in the house. It was referred to a committee and reported upon unfavorably. It is said that the cause of the unfavorable report was that the appropriation was for the purchase of a site as well as the cost of the building. It is customary where an appropriation is made for an armory for the city in which it is located to furnish the site. It is to be hoped that the bill will pass the house, as such a building would be of great use here.

THREE BILLYS.

A Journal reporter walking up West State street Tuesday afternoon passed a group of three men. The reporter, knowing one of the men who happened to be facing him, said: "Hello, Billy." To this salutation all three said "Hello." This caused the reporter to take another look. He discovered that the three men were Billy Gillham, Billy Self and Billy Masters, assessor and treasurer.

GUN CLUB SHOOT.

The Nichols Park Gun club will hold a shoot this afternoon at the park at 1 p. m.

PUPILS RECITAL.

Students of Mr. Munger and Mr. Kritch Give Program.

Pupils of Mr. Munger and Mr. Kritch of the Conservatory of Music were heard in a program of merit in recital hall Tuesday evening. The program follows:

Sonata, Op. 22, in B flat major, for piano—Beethoven—Miriam Russel.

The Brownies (from "Fairy-tale Pictures," for piano)—E. Korngold—Ellen McCurley.

Adagio from Ninth Concerto for Violin in A minor—De Beriot—Earl Briscoe.

Air for the G string—Bach; Canzonetta—D'Ambrosio—Helen Sorrells.

Polanaise in C sharp minor, Op. 26, for piano—Chopin—Dorothy Hitte.

PLENTY OF MUD.

LaFount Andrews and Lloyd Reynolds arrived home about 4:30 o'clock Tuesday afternoon from Indianapolis, Ind., where they attended the races Monday. They left last Thursday, expecting to make the trip despite the bad roads in a day and a half. It took them until Sunday to get there. Returning, they left Indianapolis Monday after the races and made Montezuma, 65 miles out. They came the remainder of the distance today. They encountered a great deal of mud all through Illinois, but found excellent roads in Indiana. Mr. Andrews and Mr. Reynolds were about the only ones from this part of the country that got through. H. K. Snyder started in his car, but abandoned it at Decatur and took the train.

A WORTHY COMPLIMENT.

In mentioning the features of the memorial day services at Springfield the State Register says: "The Bugle Call of Gettysburg as rendered by Prof. James H. Rayhill of Jacksonville was a fine illustration of vocalism and elocution. His imitation of the bugle and the receding echo were fine."

TO VISIT COAST COUNTRY.

Misses Mamie and Nellie Cunningham leave today for a stay of six weeks on the coast. Enroute they will spend some time at Salt Lake City, Los Angeles, San Francisco, Portland and Spokane, returning via Glacier National Park.

MURRAYVILLE BALL CLUB OPENS SEASON SATURDAY

Big Time Anticipated When Morgan County Aggregation Meets Nine From Roodhouse—Illinois to Play Normal University.

Murrayville citizens are anticipating a big time Saturday when the baseball club opens the season with a game against Roodhouse. There will be no admission fee and it is expected to have the Woodson orchestra present and refresments will be served at a nominal sum on the grounds.

The Murrayville line-up follows:
James Lonergan, third base.
W. Lee Wright, shortstop.
Charles Riggs, center field.
J. W. Wright, pitcher.
Ira Fanning, pitcher.
E. P. Doyle, catcher.
C. J. right, first base.

J. W. Fanning is manager and Ray Jennings secretary and treasurer, and W E. Wright captain.

Substitute players—Charles Donoway, Howard McKean, Harold Cunningham and C. H. Kilner.

The batteries for Roodhouse will be De Long and Standage.

Illinois vs. Normal.

Local baseball fans will have an opportunity to see Illinois college in action next Saturday afternoon on Illinois field when they meet Normal university. Coach Harmon has played some pretty close games this season, despite the fact that he has lacked for experienced pitchers. Since Fanning of Murrayville has joined the team the men are expecting a reversal of things and the college nine expect to show the McLean county school how the trick is turned. The line-up will be:

Fannings and Atchison; pitchers.
Darragh, catcher.
Stewart, fiirst base.
Harmon, second base.
Whisley, third bas.
Goveia, shortstop.
Pirce, center field.
Jones, right field.

DROWNING THE BUGS.

C. O. Seymour, who keeps a record of the weather, states that fourteen days during May were rainy. Mr. Seymour is of the opinion that the generous rainfall has resulted in a great deal of benefit in drowning out chinch bugs, as in examining a number of fields of oats he has seen a great many dead chinch bugs around the roots of the plants, and the indications are that the crop will be spared this damage.

EXCELLENT PIANO RECITAL BY PUPILS OF MISS SCHUREMAN

Large Number Hear Students Appear to Good Advantage in Well Rendered Program.

A piano recital by pupils of Miss Schureman was given Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock in the music rooms of the W. T. Brown piano company. Miss Schureman's ability as an instructor has ever been evidenced by the splendid work her pupils do and last night was no exception to the excellent programs rendered in the past. It was a pleasure to note the advancement the students have made and the audience was delighted with their efforts.

The program follows:

LONG INTERESTED IN WOMAN'S COLLEGE

Edward Blackburn, who is the oldest member of the board of trustees of the Woman's college, mentioned at the board meeting that he had been interested in the college for more than sixty years. He remembers distinctly that as a boy along about 1848 he assisted in hauling lumber from a saw-mill in this vicinity to the site of the Woman's college where building operations were soon to begin. He said that the arrangements for hauling the lumber were made by his father and that he and his brothers did the work. In various ways Mr. Blackburn has maintained his interest in the college, and it is indicated by the college records that during the years since the institution was founded until the present time twenty-three members of the Blackburn family have been enrolled in the student body.

CLASS HAD PICNIC.

The Booster Bible class of Lynnville M. E. church enjoyed a hay ride to Nichols park last Friday evening. Two teams furnished by Albert Potter and Joyce Masters were hitched to Ted Ranson's large hay rack.

The class arrived at the park early in the evening where supper was served after which a general good time was enjoyed by all. Those who made up the load were, Will Schofield, Harry and Fred Stringer, Will and Mamie Herring, Montie Hart, Jessie, Fannie and Fred Masters, Albert, Lela and Evanda Potter, Thomas Dodsworth, Roy Sayre, Mose Perry, Arnette and Paul Goveia. Frank Hart and Miss Marie Sayre acted as chaperons. Ordrain Fox and Geary Whittock were guests of honor.

MANY YEARS IN BUSINESS.

It will be fifteen years ago the 18th of this month since P. J. Shanahan started in the grocery business in Jacksonville. The date is also the third wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Shanahan. Mrs. Shanahan was formerly Miss Mae E. Hoferkamp of Springfield. When Mr. Shanahan first started in business he was associated with J. F. Devlin on North Main street and three years later moved on East State street and four years ago to his present location. He has now associated with him M. D. Shanahan.

Y. M. C. A. SUBSCRIPTIONS WERE OMITTED.

The Journal is informed that a subscription of $5.00 per year for two years by Geo. H. Huntoon and a donation of a bill for $10.50 by Kellogg Brothers were not mentioned in the published lists of Y. M. C. A. campaign contributions.
